

AMERICAN INDEPENDENCE.

THE approaching anniversary of American Independence will be celebrated in this town by the friends and disciples of Washington.—A Procession will be formed, and an Oration delivered on the occasion.

ORDER OF PROCESSION.

Escort—The Salem Light Infantry, commanded by Capt. J. C. KING.

Band of Music.

1st and 2d Marshals.

Committee of Arrangements.

Reverend Chaplain and Orator.

Reverend Clergy of this and other towns.

Selectmen of Salem.

Town Clerk and Assessors.

Overseers of the Poor.

School Committee.

Representatives of Salem.

Officers and Non Commissioned Officers of the Militia of this and other towns in uniform

Strangers.

Citizens.

3d and 4th Marshals.

The Procession will be formed in Court-Street, under the direction of Col. Dean, Major Lang, Major Hayes, and Captain Williams, Marshals of the Day, to move precisely at 11 o'clock, and will pass from Court-Street thro' Brown-Street, Newbury-Street, Essex-Street, and North-Street, to the Rev. Dr. Barnard's Meeting-House, where an Oration will be delivered by the Honorable Benjamin Peirce.

The Meeting-House will be opened at 10 o'clock. The Wall Pews below, and the front Gallery Pews, will be reserved for the Ladies—and none but Ladies will be admitted till after the Procession has entered.

ORDER OF PERFORMANCES.

Voluntary on the Organ, by Mr. Dolliver.

Prayer by the Rev. Dr. Barnard.

Music by the Band.

ORATION.

Music.

Salem, July 2d, 1812.