The Order for Morning Prayer.

¶ Let him that Ministreth read with a loud voice these Sentences of Scripture, and after them the Exhortation following.

Jer. 3. 25.

¶ Lie down in our shame, and our confusion covereth us: for we have sinned against the Lord our God, we and our Fathers from our youth even unto this day, and have not obeyed the voice of the Lord our God.

Jer. 1. 8.

Correct us, O Lord, but with judgment; not in thine anger: lest thou bring us to nothing.

Dearely beloved brethren, the Scripture moveth us in sundry places, to acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness, and that we should not dissemble nor cloak them before the face of Almighty God our heavenly Father, but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart, to the end, that we may obtain forgiveness of the same, by his infinite goodness and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sins before God, yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy Word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul. Wherefore I pray and beseech you as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voice, unto the throne of the heavenly grace, saying after me.

¶ The

A Form of Prayer.

¶ The Confession to be said of the whole Congregation after the Minister, all kneeling.

A Almighty and most merciful Father; We have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done; And there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults. Restore thou them that are penitent; According to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesu our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

¶ The Absolution to be pronounced by the Priest alone, standing; the People still kneeling.

A Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesu Christ, who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness and live; and hath given power and commandment to his Ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sins: He pardoneth and absolveth all them that truly repent, and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel. Wherefore let us beseech him to grant us true repentance and his holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that at the last we may come to his eternal joy, through Jesu Christ our Lord.

¶ The

A Form of Prayer.

¶ The People shall answer here, and at the end of all other Prayers, Amen.

¶ Then the Minister shall kneel, and say the Lords Prayer; the People also kneeling and repeating it with him.

Our Father which art in Heaven; Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

¶ Then likewise he shall say,

O Lord open thou our lips.

Ans. And our mouth shall shew forth thy praise,

Priest. O God make speed to save us.

Ans. O Lord make haste to help us.

¶ Here all standing up, the Priest shall say,

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghost;

Answer. As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

Priest. Praise ye the Lord.

Answer. The Lords name be praised.

¶ Instead of the Venite exultemus, shall be said this Hymn following; one Verse by the Priest, another by the Clerk and People.

Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered: Ps. 68. 1.
let them also that hate him flee before him.

Like as the smoke vanisheth, so shalt thou drive them away: and like as the wax melteth at the fire, so let the ungodly perish at the presence of God.

I will not be afraid of ten thousands of the people: Ps. 3. 6.
that have set themselves against me round about.

Through God we shall do valiantly: for it is he that shall Ps. 13. 6.
lead down our enemies.

Destroy

A Form of Prayer.

Ps. l. 10. Destroy thou them, O God, let them fall by their own counsels: cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions, for they have rebelled against thee.

6. The Lord will abhor the blood-thirsty and deceitful man.
11. But let all those that trust in thee rejoyce: Let them ever shout for joy.

12. For thou, Lord, wilt bless the righteous: with thy favour wilt thou compass him as with a shield.

Ps. xl. 10. Let all mine enemies be ashamed and sore bered: let them return and be ashamed suddenly.

Ps. xl. 11. For they intended mischief against thee: they imagined such a device as they are not able to perform.

Ps. vii. 1. O Lord my God, in thee do I put my trust: Save me from all them that persecute me and deliver me.

6. Arise, O Lord, in thine anger, lift up thy self, because of the rage of mine enemies: and awake for me to the judgment that thou hast commanded.

7. So shall the Congregation of the people compass thee about: For their sakes therefore lift up thy self again.

Ps. xl. 13. Be thou exalted, O Lord, in thy own strength: so will we sing, and praise thy power.

Glory be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

¶ Instead of the Psalms for the Day, shall these proper Psalms be used, LXII. LXIV. CXLIV.

¶ The first Lesson, 2 Chron. Chap. 20. to v. 31.

¶ After the first Lesson, shall follow Te Deum Laudamus in English.

WE praise thee, O God: we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.

All the earth doth worship thee: the Father everlasting.

To thee all angels cry aloud: the heavens, and all the powers therein.

To thee Cherubin, and Seraphin: continually do they

A Form of Prayer.

Holy, holy, holy: Lord God of Sabaoth. Heaven and earth are full of the Majesty: of thy glory.

The glorious company of the Apostles: praise thee.
The goodly fellowship of the Prophets: praise thee.
The noble army of Martyrs: praise thee.
The holy Church throughout all the world: doth acknowledge thee;

The Father: of an infinite Majesty;
Thine honourable, true: and only Son;
Also the holy Ghost: the Comforter.

Thou art the King of Glory: O Christ.
Thou art the everlasting Son: of the Father.
When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man: thou didst not abhor the Virgins womb.

When thou hadst overcome the sharpness of death: thou didst open the Kingdom of heaven to all believers.

Thou sittest at the right hand of God: in the glory of the Father.

We believe that thou shalt come: to be our Judge.
We therefore pray thee, help thy servants: whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.

Make them to be numbr'd with thy Saints: in glory everlasting.

O Lord, save thy people: and bless thine heritage.
Govern them: and lift them up for ever.

Day by day: we magnifie thee;
And we worship thy Name: ever world without end.

Touchsafe, O Lord: to keep us this day without sin.

O Lord, have mercy upon us: have mercy upon us.

O Lord, let thy mercy lighten upon us: as our trust is in thee.

O Lord, in thee have I trusted: let me never be confounded.

A Form of Prayer.

¶ The second Lesson, Luke XXI. vers. 5. to 26.

Jubilate Deo. Psal. C.

O Be joyful in the Lord all ye lands: serve the Lord with gladness, and come before his presence with a song.

Be ye sure, that the Lord he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we our selves, we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Go your way into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and speak good of his Name.

For the Lord is gracious, his mercy is everlasting: and his truth endureth from generation to generation.

Glorie be to the Father, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

¶ Then shall be said the Creed by the Minister, and the People standing.

I Believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:

And in Jesus Christ his only Son our Lord, who was conceived by the holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead and buried, He descended into hell; The third day he rose again from the dead, He ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; From thence he shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the holy Ghost; The holy Catholick Church; The Communion of Saints; The forgiveness of sins; The resurrection of the body, And the life everlasting. Amen.

¶ And after that, these Prayers following, all devoutly kneeling; the Minister first pronouncing with a loud voice,

The Lord be with you.

Answer. And with thy Spirit.

Minister.

A Form of Prayer.

Minister.

Let us pray.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us.

¶ Then the Minister, Clerks and People, shall say the Lords Prayer with a loud voice.

Our Father, which art in heaven; Hallowed be thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

¶ Then the Priest standing up, shall say,

O Lord, shew thy mercy upon us.

Answer. And grant us thy salvation.

Priest. O Lord, save the King and Queen.

Answer. And mercifully hear us when we call upon thee.

Priest. Endue thy Ministers with righteousness.

Answer. And make thy chosen people joyful.

Priest. O Lord, save thy people.

Answer. And bless thine inheritance.

Priest. Give peace in our time, O Lord.

Answer. Because there is none other that fighteth for us, but only thou, O God.

Priest. O Lord, save thy servants,

Answer. Who do put their trust in thee.

Priest. Send us help from thy holy place.

Answer. And evermore mightily defend us.

Priest. Let the enemy have no advantage against us;

Answer. Nor the wicked approach to hurt us.

Priest. Be unto us, O Lord, a strong tower;

Answer. From the face of our enemies.

Priest. O Lord, hear our prayer,

Answer. And let our eyes come unto thee.

¶ 14

A Form of Prayer.

¶ Instead of the Collect for the Day, shall be used these which follow, both in Morning and Evening Prayer, and in the Communion Service.

O Lord our God, who art justly displeas'd with us for our great and manifold sins, whereby we have provok'd thy wrath and indignation against us, and for which we have cause to fear that thou shouldst give us up to the will of our Enemies. Hear us, we beseech thee, that humble our selves before thee with Fasting and Prayer. Give us that deep sense of our transgressions, which may work in us that godly sorrow to repentance not to be repented of. Turn us from all our evil ways, that our Iniquity may not be our ruine; But that thou our gracious God, being reconcil'd to us for the sake of thy dear Son our Saviour, markst down us for thy People, and be our defence against all thy Enemies of thy true Religion Established amongst us; that so living safe under thy protection, and walking worthy of thee unto all well-pleasing, we may for ever glorifie thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Most glorious and gracious God, whose Judgments against obstinate offenders are most severe and terrible, but whose Mercies are infinite to all them that with hearty Repentance and true Faith turn unto thee; We the sinful People of this Land, do acknowledge before thee, to thy glory and our own shame, that never any Nation had greater Experience of thy goodness, nor ever did any more unthankfully abuse it. When thou hadst given us the Light of thy Gospel, and therewith great and long Prosperity, above all other Nations, to whom theretore we should have been an Example of holy and thankful Obedience; we rather gave them Offence by living idly and dissolutely, falling into Division and Strife among our selves, to the hindrance and reproach of the Reformation. When by these our transgressions we had brought our selves into those Confusions, out of which we saw little hopes of arising, even in the time of that distress did we trespass yet more against thee. When by miracles of mercy thou hadst deliver'd us, and restor'd our former Blessings, we soon forgot thee our Saviour, and returned again to our folly; And when thou hadst scourg'd us for this by several Chastisements, and being not reformed by these, we had no other to expect, but that thou shouldst have given us up into the hands of our cruel and malicious Enemies of the Romish Faction, yet now thou hast rescued us from them, we are still a backsliding People, we are no more worthy to be call'd thy Sons or thy Servants, whom neither thy Judgments have rebuk'd, nor thy Goodness led to Repentance. In mercy, O God, awaken us all; beget in us a holy dread of thy wrath, and a deep sense of our manifold and often repeated provocations. Pardon the great offences of us thy servants, and the crying sins of the whole Nation; remove the evils we still lie under; avert those we have just cause to fear; and howsoever thou mayest think fit to correct us for our sins, yet never deliver us up into the hands of those men whose mercies are cruel; point out thy abundant Blessings upon our Gracious King and Queen,

[* and their great Council now Assembled in Parliament] give thy holy Angels charge over them, hide them under the shadow of thy wings, direct and bless them in all their Consultations. And more particularly we now prostrate our selves before thee, to implore thy blessing upon this their great undertaking for the necessary defence of thy people; Go forth with thy Fleets and Armies, compass them with thy Favour, as with a Shield, let it appear that thou the Lord our God art with us to help us, and to fight our Battels; bless us with Victory and Success, and in thy own good time with such a Peace as may tend to the glory of thy great Name, and the Preservation of thy Church and true Religion among us, the Honour and Safety of their Majesties, and the Security, Peace and Prosperity of these Kingdoms. All which we humbly beg in the Name, and through the Mediation of thy Son Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for the King to be constantly used during His Majesties Expedition.

ALmighty and most gracious God, who hast been pleased to raise up thy Servant King WILLIAM to be a Deliverer to us in the day of our Distress, and by his means to Rescue us from Popish Tyranny, for which we glorifie thy holy Name; Hear the Prayers of thy Church; we beseech thee for him whom thy gracious providence hath made the happy Instrument of our Preservation. Touchstake thy gracious Presence with him throughout his Expedition; Cover his head in the day of battel; Let no Device formed against him prosper; Bless him with Victory, and all good Success; Bring him back in safety to our country; and give us Grace to be worthy of these Mercies in all thankful obedience to thee, and in dutiful subjection to their Majesties, whom thou hast set over us. Grant this for thy Mercies sake, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ The Collect for Peace.

O God, who art the author of Peace, and lover of Concord, in knowledge of whom standeth our eternal life, whose Service is perfect freedom; Defend us thy humble servants in all assaults of our enemies, that we lively trusting in thy defence, may not fear the power of any adversaries, through the might of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ The Collect for Grace.

O Lord our heavenly Father, Almighty and ever-lasting God, who hast safely brought us to the beginning of this day; defend us in the same with thy mighty power, and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger; but that all our doings may be ordered by thy governance, to do always that is righteous in thy sight, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Here followeth the Litany.

O God the Father of heaven: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

O God the Father of heaven: have mercy upon us miserable sinners.

¶ Let us pray.

O God merciful Father, that despisest not the sighing of a contrite heart, nor the desire of such as be sorrowful; mercifully assist our Prayers that we make before thee, in all our troubles and adversities, whensoever they oppress us; and graciously hear us, that those evils which the craft and subtilty of the devil or man worketh against us be brought to nought, and by the providence of thy goodness they may be dispersed, that we thy servants, being hurt by no persecutions, may evermore give thanks unto thee in thy holy Church, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

O Lord arise, help us, and deliver us for thy Names sake.

O God, we have heard with our ears, and our fathers have declared unto us, the noble works that thou didst in their days; and in the old time before them.

O Lord arise, help us, and deliver us for thine Honour.

Glorie be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the holy Ghost;

Answer.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

From our enemies defend us, O Christ.

Graciously look upon our afflictions.

Pitifully behold the sorrows of our hearts.

Mercifully forgive the sins of thy people.

Favourably with mercy hear our Prayers.

O Son of David, have mercy upon us.

Both now and ever vouchsafe to hear us, O Christ. Graciously hear us, O Christ; graciously hear us, O Lord Christ.

Priest.

O Lord, let thy mercy be shewed upon us.

Let us pray.

We humbly beseech thee, O Father, mercifully to look upon our infirmities; and for the glory of thy Name, turn from us all those evils that we most righteously have deserved; and grant that in all our troubles we may put our whole trust and confidence in thy mercy, and evermore serve thee in holiness and pureness of living, to thy honour and glory, through our only Mediatour and Advocate, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A Almighty and everlasting God, who hatest nothing that thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all them that are penitent; Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we worthily lamenting our sins, and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Lord, we beseech thee mercifully hear our prayers, and spare all those who confess their sins unto thee, that they whose consciences by sin are accused, by thy merciful pardon may be absolved, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Most mighty God, and merciful Father, who hast compassion upon all men, and hatest nothing that thou hast made, who wouldest not the death of a sinner, but that he should rather turn from his sin, and be saved; Mercifully forgive us our trespasses; receive and comfort us, who are grieved and wearied with the burthen of our sins. Thy property is always to have mercy; to thee only it appertaineth to forgive sins. Spare us therefore, good Lord, spare thy people whom thou hast redeemed; enter not into judgment with thy servants, who are vile earth, and miserable sinners; but so turn thine anger from us, who wicked to acknowledge our sinfulness, and truly repent us of our faults; and so make hast to help us in this world, that we may ever live with thee in the world to come, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then shall the people say this that followeth after the Minister.

Turn thou us, O good Lord, and so shall we be turned. Be favourable, O Lord, be favourable to thy people, who turn to thee in weeping, fasting, and praying. For thou art a merciful God, full of compassion, long-suffering, and of great pity. Thou sparest when we deserve punishment, and in thy wrath thinkest upon mercy. Spare thy people, good Lord, spare them, and let not thine heritage be brought to confusion. Hear us, O Lord, for thy mercy is great, and after the multitude of thy mercies look upon us, through the merits and mediation of thy blessed Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer for all the Reformed Churches.

O God the Father of mercies, who of thy great goodness hast united us into thy holy Church, the mystical body of Christ; we as living members thereof, mourning with them that mourn, and rejoicing with them that rejoice, do now present our Supplications and Prayers at the Throne of Grace, in behalf of all the Reformed Churches, particularly for our distressed Brethren in Ireland; beseeching thee to look down with an eye of mercy and pity, upon the sad and mournful estate of such of them whom thou hast delivered over to the hands of superstitious and merciless men, who have compell'd so many of them to defile themselves with their Idolatrous Worship; stretch out thy Arm against those deceitful and bloody men, suffer them not still to triumph over thy Heritage. How long, Lord, shall thy anger burn: for ever? How long wilt thou forget thy People? Oh let the cry of the Blood of thy Saints, and the sighing of the the Prisoners, come before thee! Deliver thou those that are as Sheep appointed for the slaughter. Hear us, O God, for thy mercy's sake, and for the honour of thy great Name. Plead thy Cause with the n that blaspheme thy Truth and persecute thy People, that so all men may say, Clearly there is a God that judgeth in the Earth. Purge all thy Churches from their dregs, and make them meet for a glorious Deliverance, that so all the world may see that Salvation belongs to our God; and that though he hides his face from his People for a season, yet he will not cast them off utterly. Grant that thy true Religion may so shine, as to become the Joy of the whole Earth; and that all Antichristian Idolatry, Superstition, and Cruelty, being cast out of thy house, all that name the Name of Christ, may depart from iniquity, and walk worthy of their holy profession, that the Kingdom of thy dear Son may come quickly; and that all his enemies being made his foot-stool, he who is the Lord of Lords, and King of Kings, may reign to all the ends of the Earth: To whom, with thee, O Father, and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory for evermore. Amen.

¶ A Prayer of St. Chrysostom.

A Almighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee, and dost promise, that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requests; Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and Petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law.

Minister.

Remember that thou keep holy the Sabbath day. Six days shalt thou labour and do all that thou hast to do, but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God. In it thou shalt do no manner of work, thou and thy Son, and thy daughter, thy man-servant, and thy maid-servant, thy cattel, and the stranger that is within thy gates. For in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the seventh day, and hallowed it.

○ Lord,

A Form of Prayer.

O Lord our God, who art justly displeas'd with us for our great and manifold sins, whereby we have provoked thy wrath and indignation against us, and for which we have cause to fear that thou shouldst give us up to the will of our Enemies; Hear us, we beseech thee, that humble our selves before thee with Fasting and Prayer. Give us that deep sense of our transgressions which may work in us a godly sorrow to Repentance not to be repented of. Turn us from all our evil ways, that our iniquity may not be our ruine; But that thou our gracious God, being reconciled to us for the sake of thy dear Son our Saviour, mayst own us for thy People, and be our defence against all the Enemies of thy true Religion Established amongst us; that so living safe under thy protection, and walking worthy of thee unto all well-pleasing, we may for ever glorifie thy holy Name, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O Most glorious and gracious God, whose Judgments against obstinate offenders are most severe and terrible, but whose Mercies are infinite to all them that with hearty Repentance and true Faith turn unto thee; We the sinful People of this Land, do acknowledge before thee, to thy glory and our own Shame, that never any Nation had greater Experience of thy goodness, nor ever did any more unthankfully abuse it. When thou hadst given us the Light of thy Gospel, and therewith great and long Prosperity, above all other Nations, to whom therefore we should have been an Example of holy and thankful Obedience; we rather gave them offence by living loosely and dissolutely, falling into Division and Strife among our selves, to the hinderance and reproach of the Reformation. When by these our transgressions we had brought our selves into those Confusions, out of which we saw little hopes of arising, even in the time of that distress did we trespass yet more against thee. When by miracles of mercy thou hadst delivered us, and restored our former Blessings, we soon forgot thee our Saviour, and returned again to our folly; And when thou hadst scourged us for this by several Chastisements, and being not reformed by these, we had no other to expect, but that thou shouldst have given us up into the hands of our cruel and malicious Enemies of the Romish Faction, yet now thou hast rescued us from them, we are still a backsliding People, we are no more worthy to be called thy Sons or thy Servants, whom neither thy Judgments have driven, nor thy Goodness led to Repentance. In mercy, O God, awaken us all; beget in us a holy dread of thy wrath, and a deep sense of our manifold and often repeated provocations. Pardon the great offences of us thy servants, and the crying sins of the whole Nation, remove the Evils we still lie under, avert those we have just cause to fear; and howsoever thou mayst think fit to correct us for our sins, yet never deliver us up into the hands of those Men whose mercies are cruel; pour out thy abundant Blessings upon our Gracious King and Queen, [* and Their great Council now Assembled in Parliament] give thy holy Angels charge over them, hide them under the shadow of thy wings, direct and bless them in all their Consultations. And more particularly we now prostrate our selves before thee, to implore thy Blessing upon this their great Undertaking for the necessary defence of thy People; So forth with their Fleets and Armies, compass them with thy Favour as with a Shield, let it appear that thou the Lord our God art with us to help us, and to fight our Battels, bless us with Victory and Success, and in thy own good time with such a Peace as may tend to the Glory of thy great Name, and the Preservation of thy Church and true Religion among us, the Honour and Safety of Their

The Epistle. Heb. XI. Verse 33. to the end.

Who through faith subdued Kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens. Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection. And others had trial of cruel mockings, and scourgings, yea, moreover, of bonds and imprisonment. They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheep-skins, and goat-skins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented: (of whom the world was not worthy) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth. And these all having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise: God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

The Gospel. S. Luke XIII. Verse 1. to Verse 10.

There were present at that season, some that told him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. And Jesus answering, said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things? I tell you, Nay: but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. Of those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwell in Jerusalem? I tell you, Nay: but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish. He spake also this parable: A certain man had a fig-tree planted in his vineyard, and he came and sought fruit thereon, and found none. Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig-tree, and find none: cut it down, why cumbereth it the ground? And he answering, said unto him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it: And if it bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.

I Believe in one God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth, And of all things visible and invisible:

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, Begotten of his Father before all worlds, God of God, Light of Light, Very God of very God, Begotten, not made, Being of one substance with the Father, by whom all things were made: Who for us men, and for our salvation, came down from heaven, And was incarnate by the holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary, And was made man, And was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate. He suffered and was buried, And the third day he rose again according to the Scriptures, And ascended into heaven, And sitteth on the right hand of the Father. And he shall come again with glory to judge both the quick and the dead: Whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the holy Ghost, The Lord and giver of life, Who proceedeth from the Father and the Son, Who with the Father and the Son together is worshipped and glorified, Who spake by the prophets. And I believe one Catholick and Apostolick Church. I acknowledge one Baptism for the remission of sins, And I look for the Resurrection of the dead, And the life of the world to come. Amen.

As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of Faith. Gal. vi. 10.

Let us pray for the whole state of Christs Church militant here in earth.

A Almighty and everliving God, who by thy holy Apostles hast taught us to make prayers and supplications, and to give thanks for all men; We humbly beseech thee most mercifully (to accept our alms and oblations, and) to receive these our prayers, which we offer unto thy divine Majesty, beseeching thee to inspire continually the universal Church with the spirit of truth, unity, and concord: and grant that all they that do confess thy holy Name, may agree in the truth of thy holy word, and live in unity and godly love. We beseech thee also to save and defend all Christian kings, princes and governours; and especially thy servants WILLIAM and MARY our King and Queen, that under them we may be godly and quietly governed: and grant unto their whole Council, and to all that are put in authority under them, that they may truly and indifferently minister justice, to the punishment of wickedness and vice, and to the maintenance of thy true religion and virtue. Give grace, O heavenly Father, to all Bishops and Curates, that they may both by their life and doctrine set forth thy true and lively word, and rightly and duly administer thy holy Sacraments: And to all thy people give thy heavenly grace; and especially to this Congregation here present, that with meek heart and due reverence, they may hear and receive thy holy

Word,

A Form of Prayer.

Allthy, truly serving thee in holiness and righteousness all the days of their life. And we most humbly beseech thee of thy goodness, O Lord, to comfort and succour all them who in this transitory life, are in trouble, sorrow, need, sickness, or any other adversity. And we also bless thy holy Name, for all thy servants departed this life in thy faith and fear; beseeching thee to give us grace so to follow their good examples, that with them we may be partakers of thy heavenly Kingdom. Grant this, O Father, for Jesus Christs sake, our only Mediatour and Advocate. Amen.

O God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ our only Saviour, the Prince of Peace, look down in much pity and compassion upon this Church and Nation, now seeking unto thee in Fasting and Prayer, sit us all up, we beseech thee, to cleanse our selves from all filthiness of flesh and spirit; Root out of our hearts all pride, wrath and bitterness, all unjust prejudice and causeless jealousy, all hatred, and malice, and desire of revenge, and whatsoever may hinder us from discerning the things that belong unto our peace. And by the power of thy holy Spirit do thou dispose all our hearts to such meekness of wisdom, lowliness of mind, patience, gentleness, and long suffering, and forbearance of one another in love, and such Honour and Reverence of those whom thou hast set over us, as becomes the Sons of Peace, that so the God of Peace may be with us. Give us grace, O Lord, seriously to say to heart the great Dangers we are in, by our unhappy Divisions, and the great Obligations which lie upon us to godly Union and Concord: That as there is but one Body, and one Spirit, and one Hope of our Calling, one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of us all; so we may henceforth be all of one Heart and of one Soul, united in one holy Bond of Truth and Peace, of Faith and Charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorifie thee, O God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almighty God, who hast promised to hear the petitions of them that ask in thy Sons Name; We beseech thee mercifully to incline thine ears to us that have made now our prayers and supplications unto thee, and grant that those things which we have faithfully asked according to thy will, may effectually be obtained, to the relief of our necessity, and to the setting forth of thy glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ Then the Priest (or Bishop, if he be present) shall let them depart with this Blessing.

The peace of God which passeth all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge and love of God, and of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord: And the blessing of God Almighty, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be amongst you, and remain with you always. Amen.

¶ Let him that ministreth read with a loud voice these Sentences of Scripture, and after them the Exhortation following.

Jer. 5. 25.

Come down in our shame, and our confusion covereth us: for we have sinned against the Lord our God, we and our Fathers from our youth even unto this day, and have not obeyed the voice of the Lord our God.

Jer. 10.

Correct us, O Lord, but with judgment; not in thine anger: lest thou bring us to nothing.

Dearly beloved brethren, the Scripture moveth us in sundry places, to acknowledge and confess our manifold sins and wickedness, and that we should not dissemble nor cloake them before the face of Almighty God our heavenly Father, but confess them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart, to the end, that we may obtain forgiveness of the same, by his infinite goodness and mercy. And although we ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sins before God, yet ought we most chiefly so to do, when we assemble and meet together, to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear his most holy Word, and to ask those things which are requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soul.

Where-

A Form of Prayer.

Wherefore I pray and beseech you as many as are here present, to accompany me with a pure heart and humble voice, unto the thrones of the heavenly grace; saying after me.

¶ The Confession to be said of the whole Congregation after the Minister, all kneeling.

Almighty and most merciful Father; We have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done; And there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us miserable offenders. Spare thou them, O God, which confess their faults. Restore thou them that are penitent; According to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

¶ The Absolution to be pronounced by the Priest alone, standing; the People still kneeling.

Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turn from his wickedness and live; and hath given power and commandment to his Ministers; to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sins: He pardoneth and absolveth all them that truly repent, and unfeignedly believe his holy Gospel. Wherefore let us beseech him to grant us true repentance and his holy Spirit, that those things may please him which we do at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may be pure and holy, so that done in earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil: For thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, of all the Reformed Churches, particularly for our distressed Brethren in Ireland; beseeching thee to look down with an eye of mercy and pity, upon the sad and mournful estate of such of them whom thou hast delivered over to the hands of superstitious and merciless men, who have compelled so many of them to defile themselves with their Idolatrous Worship; stretch out thy Arm against those deceitful and bloody men, suffer them not still to triumph over thy Heritage. How long, Lord, shall thy anger burn? for ever? How long wilt thou forget thy People? Oh let the cry of the Blood of thy Saints, and the sighing of the Passions, come before thee! Deliver thou those that are as Sheep appointed for the slaughter. Hear us, O God, for thy mercies sake, and for the honour of thy great Name. Plead thy Cause with them that blaspheme thy Truth and persecute thy People, that so all men may say, Surely there is a God that judgeth in the Earth. Purge all thy Churches from their dregs, and make them meet for a glorious Deliverance, that so all the world may see that Salvation belongs to our God; and that though he hides his face from his People for a season, yet he will not cast them off utterly. Grant that thy true Religion may so shine, as to become the Joy of the whole Earth; and that all Antichristian Idolatry, Superstition, and Cruelty, being cast out of thy house, all that name the Name of Christ, may depart from iniquity, and walk worthy of their holy profession, that the Kingdom of thy dear Son may come quickly; and that all his enemies being made his foot-stool, he who is the Lord of lords, and King of kings, may reign to all the ends of the Earth: To whom, with thee, O Father, and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory for evermore. Amen.

O God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ our only Saviour, the Prince of Peace, look down in much pity and compassion upon this Church and Nation, now seeking unto thee in fasting and Prayer; Set us all up, we beseech thee, to cleanse our selves from all filthines of flesh and spirit. Root out of our hearts all pride, wrath and bitterness, all unjust prejudice and causeless jealousy, all hatred and malice, and desire of revenge, and whatsoever may hinder us from discerning the things that belong unto our peace. And by the power of thy holy Spirit do thou dispose all our hearts to such meekness of wisdom, lowliness of mind, patience, gentleness and long suffering, and forbearance of one another in love, and such Honour and Reverence of those whom thou hast set over us, as becomes the Sons of Peace, that so the God of Peace may be with us. Give us grace, O Lord, seriously to lay to heart the great Dangers we are in, by our unhappy Divisions, and the great Obligations which lie upon us to godly Union and Conoord; That as there is but one Body, and one Spirit, and one Hope of our Calling, one Lord, one Faith, one Baptism, one God and Father of us all; so we may henceforth be all of one heart and of one Soul, united in one holy Bond of Truth and Peace, of Faith and Charity, and may with one mind and one mouth glorifie thee, O God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ A Prayer of S. Chrysostom.

Almighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord, to make our common supplications unto thee, and dost promise, that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requests; Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them, granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

2 Cor. 13. 14.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the holy Ghost be with us all evermore. Amen.
